Dear Mrs Manley:

I have received your invitation to the Squadron to attend the opening ball game of the National Negro League of the season of 1944. Since this event takes place on Sunday I feel certain a large number, perhaps one hundred, will be available.

The details of this affair will be arranged by 1st Sgt Foraker L Turner and S Sgt Marshall G Jones, if time permits I should like to attend myself.

Very truly yours,

William M. Carson
